Dear Mr. Muir

No one has ever more delighted at receiving a remembrance than I was when I found your present took among my mail one morning just before Christmas Thank You And I do not believe that any one ever enjoyed a letter more than I did, not even Professor Sargent himself.

You made me, again

ground of being a Scotchman but of that I am proud every day. Now I should delight in seeing you again, I hope I shall.

Mr. Munroe wishes to be remembered most kindly as I do, and believe me John Muir.

Yours sincerely,
Friend and admirer
Mary Barr Munroe
